

PRIEUR DE MEYNEY

SECOND WINE OF CHÂTEAU MEYNEY

SAINT-ESTÈPHE - VINTAGE 2014

Presentation

Prieur de Meyney, created in 1979 by Jean Cordier; is the younger sibling of Château Meyney. Essentially made from the younger vines of this magnificent estate, it enjoys the same care and attention as its elder. The two wines are made with virtually the same balance of grape varieties and the same vinification and maturing methods.

Tasting Note

Meyney 2014 presents a deep colour with hints of violet. The nose develops notes of blackcurrant and other small black fruit, with a hint of slightly peppery spiciness combined with voluptuous, well-integrated woody notes. The palate reveals a gentle, harmonious wine that promises to age well. The wine is full-bodied, well-rounded and structured. After ageing, the wine displays the remarkable charm of the best Saint-Estèphe: complexity, balance and harmony.
